35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

Claims 34 and 36 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter. Claim 34 recites a computer program comprising computer instruction to implement the method of claims 23, 31, 32, or 33. The claim is seen as non-statutory because it does not recite the requisite storage on a computer-readable medium that would otherwise make the claim statutory. As such it is computer program per se and would cover a program written on paper. Claim 36 recites the program on a carrier signal and fails to provide a process, machine or manufacture. For further explanation applicants' attention is directed to the Interim Guidelines for Examination of Patent Applications for Patent Subject Matter Eligibility (signed 26Oct2005) published in the Official Gazette 1300 OG 142 and available from the uspto website at <http://www.uspto.gov/web/offices/pac/dapp/ogsheet.html>.

The amendment filed 02 May 2007 although stating that the suggestion was being adopted omitted the storage of the suggestion.

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

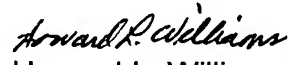

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Velazquez (US 6570514 B1) discloses a compensation system that addresses higher order errors but appears to use a feed-forward arrangement.

Claims 1-33, 35 and 37 are allowed over the art of record.
